The physicians at Hotel Dieu, Paris, are puzzled over a remarkable case. A youth named Jean Coudouist is under treatment for overgrowth. He is 20 years of age, and up to last year presented nothing extraordinary in his appearance. He was tall, and that was all, but had for some time ceased to grow, after attaining a height of 5 feet 6 inches. Suddenly in May, last year, he began to add to his height, and up to September 14th he had stretched to 5 feet 10 inches. This growth has continued until he now measures 6 feet 10 inches. He appears to have elongated principally in the legs, and the phenomena is accompanied by racking pains in the bones. His health in other respects is very unsatisfactory, consumption having shown itself in a very dangerous form.

A lofty mass of rock which threw its shadow over Las Vegas, New Mexico, half a mile away, lately tumbled into the valley. Five to fifteen thousand tons of rock were loosened from its foundation. The mountain tumbled 5000 feet above the Galtinas river. The most remarkable result of this violent change is found to be the disclosing at the point of rupture, high on the mountain side, of an eight-foot vein of copper carbonates and sulphides, located. Half way down the side of the mountain a coal bed was laid bare, which was premeditated as soon as discovered.

North Carolina boasts of a semi-aquatic town, of which a correspondent of the Atlanta Constitution writes: "I suppose Morehead City is the only city in the world without a wheel in it. I do not think there is a wagon or a buggy horse in town, and very few in the country. Everything is done in boats. There is not a house in the country that a boat cannot get within a mile of. Not a doctor or a lawyer in the country owns a horse—they practice in boats. The people go to funerals in boats, and when they arrest a man they carry him to jail in a boat."

The Japan correspondent of a London paper quotes Joseph Cook as having been informed by the missionaries in Japanese students sent to America had returned Christians, while not such case had occurred among those sent to Germany, France or England. The reason, the correspondent thinks, is that "in the United States religion is more easily felt by an outsider than in Scotland, or England, or Germany or France."
